

Need to create more awareness about impact of nutritious food on immunity: Tomar

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, June 7

AGRICULTURE MINISTER NARENDRA Singh Tomar on Monday said that the current pandemic has drawn everyone's attention to the key issue of food security and creating awareness on the impact of nutritious and clean food on immunity.

In today's fast-paced life, it is important to have a healthy and nutritious diet to fight diseases in order to maintain good immunity. And every step of the food chain should make an effort to keep food safe and healthy, he said.

"Although coronavirus does not spread through food, the current global pandemic has drawn our attention to issues related to food security such as sanitation, antimicrobial resistance, climate change, etc,"

The minister said an absence of a holistic-balanced specific policy on food security can have a negative impact on the economy of any society or country

Tomar said while addressing a virtual event organised by PHD Chambers of Commerce on the World Food Safety Day.

The minister also said that it has become more important for every citizen to understand and create awareness about impact of nutritious and safe food on the immune system.

Stating that there are concerns about climate change not only in India but across the world because of its impact on agriculture, the minister said an absence of a holistic-balanced specific policy on food security can have a negative impact on the economy of any society or country.

The minister further said the government is well aware of the importance of nutrition for the development and welfare of the society. Highlighting steps taken to ensure food and nutrition security in the country, Tomar said the government has introduced mid-day meals in schools, providing ration to pregnant and lactating mothers through Anganwadis and Public Distribution System to the poorest of the poor.

The government has also launched the POSHAN Abhiyaan with an aim to make India malnutrition free. The government has spent about ₹15,000 crore in the year 2020-21 on nutrition related schemes / programmes.

TMC to look beyond Bengal, will go to a state only to win: Abhishek

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
Kolkata, June 7

ADDRESSING HIS FIRST press conference as Trinamool Congress general secretary, MP Abhishek Banerjee Monday said there would be renewed push to take the party across the country. With the BJP emerging as the TMC's primary opponent in West Bengal, Abhishek said, "Our target is not to defeat the BJP. Our target is to save the country and protect our Constitution."

Countering the BJP's attacks on him citing dynasty politics, Abhishek, who is Trinamool supremo and Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee's nephew, said, "You ran a campaign on 'dynasty'. People gave you the answer. I want to tell the BJP, sometimes dynasty is better than being nasty."

Daring the BJP to bring in a law banning dynasty politics if it felt so strongly against it, the MP said, "If they pass such a Bill, I will resign from my post."

Won't take any post for 20 years, can Jay Shah promise the same: Abhishek at a press meet in Kolkata Monday.

He said the BJP won't bring such a law as it was "importing dynastic turncoats". Several TMC leaders had joined the BJP ahead of the recent Assembly elections, including Suwendu Adhikari and his family members.

Abhishek also declared, "I don't want any ministerial berth for the next 20 years. Can Jay Shah (Union Home Minister Amit Shah's son) say the same about his BCCI post?"

Refuting claims that he was the de facto No. 2 in the party, he said everyone in the TMC was a worker.

The TMC leader said the party would go about its expansion more systematically than before, though he didn't share any details. "We will not go to other states to win some seats or some percentage of votes. We will go to

Choksi names 'friend' Barbara, Indian agents in his 'abduction' complaint to Antigua Police

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, June 7

FUGITIVE DIAMANTAIRE MEHUL Choksi (pictured) who is held in Dominica after his mysterious disappearance from Antigua and Barbuda has alleged that his "friend" Barbara Jabarica was instrumental in his abduction which involved musclemen claiming to be Antiguan Police and mercenaries looking like Indians.

The police have started the investigation after receiving a complaint from Choksi, Antigua Prime Minister Gaston Browne said.

In his complaint to the Royal Police Force of Antigua and Barbuda accessed by PTI, Choksi has named Jabarica, Narinder Singh and Gurmit Singh besides other unidentified people as accused.

Choksi has alleged that Jabarica who had developed "friendly terms with him" over the past year was an "integral part" of his abduction purportedly orchestrated by musclemen claiming to be Antiguan Police and mercenaries looking like Indians.

The absconding businessman, wanted in ₹13,500 crore banking scam in India, is getting treatment under detention at the Dominica China Friendship Hospital, Roseau. Choksi who was held for illegal entry in the neighbouring island country of Dominica has alleged that he was invited by Jabarica to her home at Marina in Antigua on May 23 at around 5 pm.

The diamantaire claimed she used to reside opposite his residential complex in Jolly Harbour, before moving to Coco Bay Hotel, and had developed friendly terms with his staff and even accompanied him on walks regularly.

"On May 23, 2021, she requested that we deviate from our normal schedule of meeting in a public place directly, and asked me to pick her up at her house, which is located on the road next to the Marina, numbered as 407," he said.

Choksi alleged that when he went to her house she asked him to wait inside as she would finish her wine before going out.

While he was waiting, 8-10 musclemen claiming to be Antiguan Policemen barged in and beat him to a pulp, took his wallet, Rolex watch, mobile phone, and tased him before handcuffing, gagging and blindfolding him, the businessman claimed. Choksi said they told him that if tried to resist he would be booked for "obstruction of justice".

He alleged that they bundled him on a wheelchair in a comatose state and took him through the backside of Jabarica's residence on a small watercraft.

"The manner in which Jabarica conducted herself, including by not helping me get free from the said persons and her subsequent lack of initiative in contacting the police clearly points to the fact that she was an integral part of this entire scheme to kidnap me," Choksi alleged.

Industries cannot operate without prior environment clearance, says NGT

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, June 7

INDUSTRIES CANNOT OPERATE without prior environment clearance (EC), the National Green Tribunal has said while holding that the State has no power to exempt the requirement.

A bench headed by NGT Chairperson Justice Adarsh Kumar Goel said the State cannot allow the units to function without EC on payment of compensation.

"We thus hold that without prior EC the units cannot be allowed to operate. The State has no power to exempt the requirement of prior EC or to allow the units to function without EC on payment of compensation. We are of the view that since prior EC is statutory mandate, the same must be complied," the bench said.

The green panel said prior EC is required under Environmental Impact Assessment Notification dated September 14, 2006 and there is no justification to permit function of such units in violation of mandate of law.

The tribunal's observation came on a plea filed by NGO Dastak seeking quashing of the order of the Haryana government allowing manufacturers of formaldehyde, requiring prior EC, to operate for six months without the clearance, subject to making application for it within 60 days.

The NGO submitted that requirement of prior EC is mandatory and there is no jurisdiction with the State to exempt the same.

The NGT in its order said, "We have no doubt that the stand of the private respondents will be duly considered by the concerned regulatory authorities, including the MoEF on merits and in accordance with law but till compliance of statutory mandate, the units cannot be allowed to function."

FE BUREAU
New Delhi, June 7

INDIA'S DIESEL SALES fell 19.7% to 762 thousand tonnes in the first six days of June, compared with the previous year, signalling reduced demand due to soaring retail prices of the fuel. Diesel sales in May had inched up 1.4% year-on-year to 4.9 million tonnes (MT). These are the sales figures of state-run oil marketing companies (OMCs) which comprise about 90% of the total supply in the country. The latest official sales data for the overall sector are available for April when overall consumption of petroleum products had fallen to 17 MT, the lowest recorded since September 2020.

Diesel sales contribute to around 40% of the total consumption of petroleum products and lower demand signal that the re-imposition of lockdown curbs with the second wave of the coronavirus in many areas has slowed industrial and commercial consumption.

However, an industry official pointed that the difference demand is higher also because there was no Sunday in the first six days of June 2020. OMC petrol sales in the first six days of June was 260 thousand tonnes, 18.5% lower than June 2020. Petrol sold by OMCs in May was 1.8 MT, which was 12.9% higher than the same month in 2020. However, petrol sales remained much lower than 2.5 MT sold in May 2019 when there was no lockdown to reduce the spread of the coronavirus. As much as 6.9 MT of diesel was sold in May 2019.
